This licence will continue for as long as the licence holder continue to meet its terms. However, it will come to an end if you do not pay the necessary continuation fee by the date required. The licence holder may also face regulatory action including revocation if found to be operating outside its terms. You have paid for an initial period of five years, which starts with the date the licence was issued. The continuation fee must be paid before the end of the month before that five-year period comes to an end and every five years after that. Please see note 1 for further details.

This document is an operator's licence issued under the Goods Vehicles (Licensing of Operators) Act (Northern Ireland) 2010 (the Act). The conditions and undertakings recorded in this licence have been given by the licence holder and are considered to be material to the grant of the licence. In the case of a licence first issued before 1 July 2012, the recorded undertakings include statements of intent made by the licence holder.

The maximum number of motor vehicles and trailers authorised in accordance with section 5 of the Act is:
